

13) YOU HAPPENED

Ooo Ooo You happened!
I'd had enough bad relationships
Even after my friends dating tips
This finally made me delirious
It was time to not get serious
No more commitment I'll just have some fun
Grow old with a smile be tied down to no one
My plan was working no more heavy heart
What a plan....I played the part....

And then you happened
You totally blew my plan away
I did not think it could happen
But it did what can I say
Gladly change my way of thinkin'
Ooo Ooo You happened!

How could this be, someone pinch me
I never dreamed there would ever be
Someone who would ever get me to commit
This is real, I will admit
Just look at me, I'm so happy
Pardon me, I'm a little bit sappy
I've come a long way since those mislead days
I was lost, I was in a haze

And then you happened
You totally blew my plan away
I did not think it could happen
But it did what can I say
Gladly change my way of thinkin'
Ooo Ooo You happened!

(cool jazz break...sorry....I couldn't resist)

And then you happened
You totally blew my plan away
I did not think it could happen
But it did what can I say
Gladly change my way of thinkin'
Ooo Ooo You happened!
